having panoramic views over the River Wharfe and surrounding countryside. There is also a large dressing room and a beautifully appointed individual house bathroom with a modern four-piece suite.

To the front and side and rear over the garage of the property there is a large, splendid split-level garden enjoying magnificent views over the river and surrounding Yorkshire Dales countryside. There is also a parking area with space for ample vehicles and a high triple garage with power, lighting, water and cabled WIFI.

Surrounded by the beautiful countryside of the Yorkshire Dales National Park, adjacent to the River Wharfe, the highly regarded village of Grassington is well served by a comprehensive range of amenities including a Post Office, a convenience store, a medical centre with dentist, a hardware shop, a range of other everyday shops and a great choice of venues to eat and drink. There is an excellent pre school, primary and secondary schooling and the local area is renowned for its stunning scenery providing an excellent landscape for walking, fishing, cycling, fell running, horse riding, and a range of other outdoor pursuits. Grassington hosts a very popular annual two week summer Art Festival as well as an annual Dickensian Christmas Festival.

The historic market town of Skipton known as the 'Gateway to the Dales' is only circa nine miles away to the South, providing more extensive shopping and recreational facilities together with Ermysted's Boys Grammar School and Skipton Girls High School. Skipton includes a railway station providing regular daily services to Leeds and Bradford together with a direct service to London's Kings Cross.

Certainly representing one of the rare opportunities in Grassington in recent years, the unique family home comprises in further detail:
